SEC COVID-19 Disclosure
ROCKWELL LAND CORPORATION

Rockwell Land's priority is our community's health and well-being, thus we have implemented measures to help prevent the risk of inadvertent infection. Furthermore, we have assessed the possible risk to our business and have put in place the necessary mitigating measures.

The community quarantine over Metro Manila will mostly affect our Retail and Hotel operations, which constitutes 12% of our revenues. For Power Plant Mall and Santolan Town Plaza, only establishments that fall under these categories will be open from March 15 to April 14, or until the ban has been lifted: groceries, diagnostic clinics, pharmacies, hardware, banks, and restaurants (take-out and delivery only).

As of March 16, 2020, 12 noon, we have 3 confirmed COVID-19 positive cases in our residential buildings in Rockwell Center. We are continuously doing contact tracing and are informing those who have been in close contact with the said residents to go on self-quarantine. Moreover, we have intensified our safety and sanitation protocols throughout our properties. We have been and continue to be in coordination with the Makati LGU and Makati Health officials to ensure implementation of the proper protocols.

For added measure, we have limited the entry and exit points of the affected properties and have closed some public areas. These will allow us to completely disinfect areas as necessary and reduce close contact scenarios between residents and guests.

There is also a risk of slowdown in residential sales. In response, we have strengthened marketing initiatives, including those through digital platforms, that are being employed to ensure that our sales efforts will continue to have a wide reach. Aside from postdated checks of our clients, alternative cash payment options are likewise available. Moreover, we have identified cost savings and possible delay in capital expenditures to mitigate.

Our offices are manned by a skeletal workforce, to ensure business continuity across our properties, with the rest observing work from home arrangements.
